

International Conference

ProMode - Prosperity, Mobility and Demographic Change in European Cities held at: European Academy of the Urban Environment - 46/48 Bismarckallee - 14193 Berlin (-Grunewald), Germany

Monday, 27 November 2006

Chair: Friedemann Kunst, Senate Department of Urban Development, Berlin

- 09:00 Participants register
- 09:30 Welcome and introduction
Michael Bruch, Deputy Head of Protocol of Land Berlin
Hanns-Uve Schwedler, European Academy of the Urban Environment
- 10:00 Social and economic disparities in Europe due to demographic change
Hanns-Uve Schwedler, European Academy of the Urban Environment
- 10:45 Demographic change and urban development – eastern Germany as a vanguard?
Bernhard Köppen, University of Koblenz-Landau
- 11:30 Coffee
- 12:00 Demographic change as a new challenge for urban transport policy
Tilman Bracher, German Institute of Urban Affairs, Berlin
- 12:45 Lunch
- 14:15 Changing mobility patterns and needs of elderly people - results of a research project
Joachim Scheiner, University of Dortmund
- 15:00 Opportunities and risks of demographic change – the perspective of Vienna
Andreas Rauter, City of Vienna
- 15:45 Coffee
- 16:15 Panel discussion
Representatives from Berlin's partner cities
- 17:30 Résumé of day 1, outlook on day 2
- 18:00 Supper

Tuesday, 28 November 2006

Chair: Hans-Joachim Becker, Technical University of Berlin

- 09:00 Demographic, economic and social developments – impacts on public finance
Martin Junkernheinrich, University of Münster
- 9:45 Introduction to the working groups
- 10:15 Working group session 1: Mobility in 2020+ - Types of users and their needs
- 12:00 Lunch
- 13:00 Working group session 2: Mobility in 2020+ - Satisfying future needs
- 15:00 Coffee
- 15:30 Report back from the working groups
Rapporteurs
- 16:15 Final discussion: Continuing cooperation and exchange? - further steps and aims to be accomplished by the second meeting
- 17:30 Conference ends